A brown teddy bear is the central focus, holding a large, dark-colored sign with white text. The bear is positioned behind the sign, with its front paws resting on the top edge. The sign is rectangular and has a white border. The text on the sign is arranged in four lines. To the left of the sign, there is a small, dark-colored bag with two horizontal white stripes. To the right, there is a small, dark-colored object that looks like a piece of fabric or a small bag. The background is a light, textured surface.
